

The Organizing Authority SM

For Immediate Release Contact: Bernette Powell, Organizing by Bernette
Director of Membership, NAPO-CT

Date: May 15, 2009 Phone/email: 203-592-0863
bernette.powell@sbcglobal.net

NAUGATUCK ENTREPRENEUR ELECTED DIRECTOR OF MEMBERSHIP OF NAPO-CT FOR 2009-10

Naugatuck, CT – Bernette Powell, owner of Organizing by Bernette, has been elected Director of Membership of the Connecticut Chapter of the National Association of Professional Organizers (NAPO). Bernette founded Organizing by Bernette in 2008. Prior to that, Bernette worked in the corporate arena for several years. She holds a B.S. from Albertus Magnus College.

NAPO-CT is a not-for-profit association with 50+ Professional Organizers dedicated to making the lives of their clients easier by transferring organizing skills. Members of NAPO-CT are experts in nearly 42 specialties including: residential organizing – garages, attics, basements, closets, etc.; computer consulting and training; estate organization; event planning; home office and business organizing; finances and bookkeeping; paper management; moving/relocations; seminars/public speaking; organizing Seniors, children, students, adults with ADD and the Chronically Disorganized. For more information, visit www.napo.net and www.napoct.com. Monthly Chapter meetings are open to anyone interested in becoming a Professional Organizer and are held on the third Friday of each month at the North Haven Holiday Inn. Meetings feature guest speakers, education and guidance, marketing tips, networking opportunities and more.