For Immediate Release	Contact:	Judith Kirk, Organizing Resources Treasurer, NAPO-CT
Date: May 15, 2009	Phone/email:	860-978-0024 Judith@OrganizingResources.com

PLAINVILLE ENTREPRENEUR ELECTED TREASURER OF NAPO-CT FOR 2009-10

Plainville, CT- Judith Kirk, owner of Organizing Resources, has been elected Treasurer of the Connecticut Chapter of the National Association of Professional Organizers (NAPO-CT). Judith has been a member of NAPO (www.napo.net) since 1995, a Golden Circle Member since 2000 and a founding member of the Connecticut Chapter. Judith most recently served as Director of Communication & Technology (2008-2009).

NAPO-CT is a not-for-profit association with 50+ Professional Organizers dedicated to making the lives of their clients easier by transferring organizing skills. Members of NAPO-CT are experts in nearly 42 specialties including: residential organizing – garages, attics, basements, closets, etc.; computer consulting and training; estate organization; event planning; home office and business organizing; finances and bookkeeping; paper management; moving/relocations; seminars/public speaking; organizing Seniors, children, students, adults with ADD and the Chronically Disorganized. For more information, visit www.napo.net and www.napoct.com. Monthly Chapter meetings are open to anyone interested in becoming a Professional Organizer and are held on the third Friday of each month at the North Haven Holiday Inn. Meetings feature guest speakers, education and guidance, marketing tips, networking opportunities and more.